Reflections and Meditations Nov 29 2019 In 2011 Dr. Pearl T. Morgan-Bell received an e-mail with a list of inspirational texts organized alphabetically. Dr. Bell covers the alphabet fourteen times throughout the year in the devotional, featuring a keyword in the daily Bible text, starting with A and ending with Z. Reflections from the Journey Dec 23 2021 Reflections from The Journey was written to share practical insight into the day-to-day struggles we all face. In the book, Kim shares many of the life lessons that she has learned along the way. The revelation of God is progressive and we learn more about Him as we journey along. Many of these life lessons are learned in the "school of hard knocks" but the rewards are great and profitable to spiritual growth and development. An understanding of the "processes" that God takes us through is crucial if we are to appreciate the resulting weight of glory that is produced in our lives. It is Kim's desire that you will be blessed as you revisit familiar Bible stories as illustrations of powerful principles. The truths shared in this book will bring deliverance and hope to all who open their hearts to receive the wisdom of God. Kim R. Moyer is a licensed Minister and a Christian writer. She has B.A. in Psychology and a Master of Religious Arts Degree in Theology. She is a member of the United Holy Church of America where she serves as an instructor for the United Christian Institute. She is a Women's Conference speaker, workshop presenter and Psalmist. She especially enjoys teaching the Word of God. Her desire is to write books that will assist the believer in being successful in their Christian walk by equipping them to deal with the difficulties faced in everyday life. Waiting for Rain Jan 30 2020 In Israel, the High Holiday cycle marks the transition from summer to the rainy season. In Waiting for Rain, the acclaimed teacher Bryna Levy offers a compelling collection of meditations that examine the biblical and liturgical readings associated with the High Holidays, from Rosh Hashanah to Simhat Torah. Based on a series of lectures given in Jerusalem at Matan – the Women's Institute for Torah Studies, and known as "The Hoshana Rabbah Lectures," Levy's readings of the traditional texts echo the natural and spiritual tenor of this season. Waiting for Rain joins the field of biblical interpretation known as parshanut ha-mikrah. It offers fresh insights into traditional rabbinic interpretation, together with the author's perspective as a modern Orthodox woman bible scholar. Levy explores the psyches of the biblical characters and addresses issues such as our connectedness to others, the tragedy of wasted opportunity, confronting evil, the denial of death, faith and doubt, personal and communal responsibility, universalism versus particularism, the challenge of leadership, sin and atonement, and the efficacy of prayer. The result is a highly personal approach to the meaning of the High Holidays that resonates with our own modern lives. Stories about heroes and heroines, love, faith, hope, and dreams make this book a moving and engaging source for study and reflection as well as an excellent companion to the traditional High Holiday prayer services.

God Sent a Baby: Daily Advent Reflections on Progeny, Promises, and the Plan of Redemption Nov 09 2020 God sent a baby. It is an often-repeated pattern in the Bible?early intimations of the birth of God's own Son?the final word of God to his people. When people called upon God for justice, deliverance, healing, and restoration, God sent a baby. Many of these babies foreshadowed the life and ministry of Jesus Christ?a picture, on a human scale, of the baby who would come one day to rescue and save us all. While these babies grew up to be men who were limited in their power and their righteousness, they hint at the holy and all-powerful Son of God. Babies like Seth, Isaac, Moses, Samuel, Solomon, and John anticipated the coming of the Savior, Jesus Christ. They foretold something of his ministry and his kingdom. This advent devotional is all about the babies?wonderful gifts from the Father! And it's all about the birth of the baby who came to deliver us all: Jesus, our blessed redeemer! December 1 through December 25, each daily advent reading is followed by reflection questions and ample room to journal a personal response.
